CALL FOR PAPERS

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
INTEGRATION: OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

In the current international economic context, cooperating and sharing experience in the fields of business, education and training, finance, and economics, etc. among nations play an important role in developing their economy, culture, and society. Although the international integration provides opportunities of bilateral and multilateral cooperation among nations, organizations and businesses, it gives challenges of competition in most sectors and fields.

Vietnam University of Commerce and Danang College of Commerce are coordinating to hold the International Conference on the theme: “Integration: Opportunities and Challenges” in Danang. Organizing this international conference will provide a forum for policy makers and scholars in Vietnam and overseas countries where they can exchange information and experiences to make the best use of opportunities and prepare reactions for emerging challenges in the international integration process.

Participants: Policy makers, managers from Vietnam National Assembly, Ministries, People’s Committee of provinces, Vietnam Chamber of Commerce and Industry, lecturers, researchers from Vietnam University of Commerce, Ho Chi Minh College of Foreign Economic Relations, other universities, colleges and institutes in Vietnam and scholars and researchers from China, France, Australia, Singapore, The United States, the United Kingdom, Austria, and New Zealand, etc.

Time and place: The conference is going to be held on 2 days of 14th and 15th December 2012 at Danang College of Commerce, Danang city.

The Organization Board cordially invites you to write papers for our conference on the following topics:
